

6516205402.txt

As a frequent traveler satellite radio gives me the opportunity to listen to Chicago news and weather when I am not in the local listening area. This helps me to keep track of any events that may effect my family back home or a possible delay on return trip. Blocking these services would be a great disservice.